

Offer from CLAIM:

Between resilience and powerlessness – Safer space for students affected by anti- Muslim racism

Speakers: Batoul Abu-Yahya and Wida Faizi
Date: Monday, November 11, 2024, 9-17h

In this workshop, we aim to create a space in which students affected by anti-Muslim racism have the opportunity to speak, ask, learn and: be. Together, we want to tackle various social issues and strategies for our lives in Germany, exchange ideas and learn from each other. In a safe space, we will strengthen our skills in dealing with anti-Muslim racism and present strategies for coping with such experiences and taking active action against them.

Our aim in this workshop is not only to impart knowledge, but also to build a strong network based on solidarity and mutual support. Together, we want to develop strategies that help us in our everyday lives and empower us to stand up for respectful and diverse coexistence.

The workshop will be led by people who have also been affected by anti-Muslim racism.

The workshop will be held in German and English spoken language.

Registration until 04.11.2024 at daniela.marx@uni-goettingen.de

Please use your student e-mail address for registration and tell us your name and preferred form of address (pronoun). You are welcome to tell us about specific needs that you would like to bring to the attention of the speakers.

The location will be announced after registration.

If you have any questions about the workshop, please contact us at any time!

Host:

CLAIM currently unites and networks 52 Muslim and non-Muslim civil society actors and forms a broad social alliance against anti-Muslim racism, Islamophobia and hostility towards Muslims. CLAIM creates effective structures for professional exchange and cooperation in Germany and Europe and supports civil society organizations and projects in further developing the necessary skills. CLAIM is funded by the Federal Ministry for Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth (BMFSFJ) as part of the federal program "Live Democracy!" and by the Federal Government Commissioner for Migration, Refugees and Integration and the Federal Government Commissioner for Anti-Racism.

Organisation:

Equal Opportunities and Diversity Unit, Diversity Department, Dr Daniela Marx: daniela.marx@zvw.uni-goettingen.de